

Member Appreciation Day on Sat. Sept. 12

You are all invited to a Member Appreciation day at the Elks on Saturday, September 12. This a follow-up from last year's Elktober. This is a way for the Membership Committee to salute all members for being there and for doing what you do for our community and for our Lodge.

When: Sept. 12 starting at 2 PM with Boat Rides, Washer Toss (more details to follow)

Who: All membership

Cost: Food, rides, games and soft drinks are free. Alcoholic beverages at bar prices.

Everyone who is coming will have to register so that we can arrange for the Boat Rides and also so that we will know how much food we need.

Fundraisers

We are planning to have our Annual Remembrance Day Breakfast on November 11 from 8 AM to noon.

Physical Distancing at our Events

1. We want people to make reservations for dinners in groups or at least let us know who you would bubble with.
2. Tables will be 2 meters apart whether there is one person at the table or 8.
3. The more people who will bubble, the more we can seat.
4. Meals will be served with people with gloves and masks. When not seated, wear a mask.

Fraternally yours,
